Inventory Items

Description of columns

- Name: what the item is called in the game
- Thing ID: used by map editors to place the item
- Type: item category
  - artifacts can be activated manually by the player
  - powerups activate their effect at pickup time
  - treasure is converted to money at pickup time
- List price: the base price an item is sold for by merchants
  - merchants selling items by the dozen charge half this price
  - merchants selling items by the crate (25 pieces) charge a quarter of this price
  - merchants who buy excess player inventory offer half to a quarter of this price, depending on location
  - a few individual merchants might offer special deals for lower prices or might try to gouge you for a higher price
- Inventory Limit: the maximum number of items you can carry at one time
- Merchants: whether the item is sold by merchants
- World: whether the item can be found lying around out in the world
- Monsters: whether the item can drop from monsters you kill
- Peculiarities: differences vs original Hexen items
